

2010 Census Complete Count Committee
Jefferson County, West Virginia

The County Commission of Jefferson County is seeking individuals to serve on a volunteer committee “2010 Census Complete County Committee” to develop programs and procedures to increase awareness about the census and motivate residents in Jefferson County to respond to the census information forms. The committee needs members from all cross sections of Jefferson County including education, business, religious organizations, community representatives from government agencies, service organizations and the media. If you are interested in serving on this committee, please submit your name to the Office of the Jefferson County Commission, PO Box 250, Charles Town, WV 25414, or email to info@jeffersoncountywv.org.
