Chairman's Report

Chris Conroy discussed his attendance at a few events and the positive feedback he was receiving.

President JCFRA

No report.

Director's Report

- Part Time staff needs: Director Pouget asked for fifteen complete sets of turnout gear at a cost of $2,500.00 per set to outfit part staff members. Chris Conroy made a motion to purchase 15 complete sets of gear for the part time cadre and purchase extra coats and pants not exceed $45,000. The motion was seconded by Jane Tabb and a unanimous vote followed.
- Communications and quickest route update: Director Pouget has been summoned to the West Virginia State Fire Commission meeting on August 19, 2016. Director Pouget reported that while we are making progress, the relationship between the Chiefs and the Director of Communications is still fractured and creates challenges at times.
- CAD Data progress: the CAD data still indicates we are holding an improvement of one minute in response times. The EMS and Fire data has not been separated as of yet.
- Progress on the transition to fire: Deputy Director Hannon reported all staff members have completed their physicals, all training has been verified and recorded and competencies have been completed.
- Discussion occurred reference JCESA developing a rescue task force concept as well as successfully passing the Ambulance Authority inspection when the State of West Virginia visited us earlier in the month.
- Update on Volunteer RRT Grant filed on March 24, 2016. No updates as of yet.
