CHARLES TOWN, WV (April 3 2025) – The Jefferson County Parks and Recreation Commission (JCPRC) presented to the Jefferson County Commission today, highlighting upcoming spring and summer events and programs that will be available to residents in 2025. The presentation included an overview of the newly released 2025 Summer Activity Guide.

According to Parks and Recreation, the 2025 Summer Activity Guide features a wide range of opportunities designed to engage residents of all ages and interests. Highlights include:

- Youth Camps and Sports: A diverse lineup of summer camps—including sports leagues, STEM programs, and arts-focused activities—ensures that kids and teens stay active and engaged.
- Fitness and Wellness: Adults and families can join group fitness classes, walking programs, and recreational sports leagues to support a healthy lifestyle.
- Community Events: Popular offerings like outdoor movie nights, live music, and family festivals will return to help build community spirit and pride.

Parks and Recreation also shared that scholarships remain available for individuals and families needing financial assistance. For more information or to apply, residents can contact the JCPRC office at 304-728-3207.

“We are proud to offer a summer full of opportunities for recreation, learning, and togetherness,” said Jennifer Myers, Director of JCPRC. “Our 2025 Activity Guide reflects our commitment to serving the diverse needs of Jefferson County residents.”
