

JCESA

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Officer Down

Date: January 7, 2015

Time: 6pm to 9pm

Location: JCESA - Station 11

This course will examine the challenges of providing emergency care for a wounded officer including how to gain access through protective and tactical gear, how to secure his/her weapon, and options to consider when faced with violence in the presence of a downed officer.

There is no cost to the student for this course. This course is open to all Jefferson County EMS providers. For questions or additional information, contact Beth Jeffries or Bob Burner.

To take this course you MUST register by calling 304-728-3287 or register at jcesa.org no later than January 2 at 4pm.

Required Textbook: None