

Jefferson County Emergency Services Agency Vacancy Announcement Director

Jefferson County Emergency Services Agency is seeking qualified candidates to fill the position of Director. The Director reports to the JCESA Board and will be responsible for providing; proactive leadership, strategic planning support, developing an annual budget, controlling expenses, formulating policies and effectively managing the response and delivery of EMS while crafting a collaborative relationship with the local Volunteer Fire Departments. The ideal candidate must have demonstrated experience and skills managing as a proven leader with excellent communication and public speaking skills. Ten years of increasingly responsible full-time career experience in a combination career/volunteer Fire/EMS Department, having a minimum of five years of which are in a command or management position overseeing the delivery of Fire and EMS by three or more stations. Preferred qualifications include a Bachelor's degree in Fire Administration, EMS Management or a closely related field, West Virginia or National Registered EMT-P and ProBoard or West Virginia Fire Officer III certification. An equivalent combination of education, certification and experience may be considered. JCESA offers a comprehensive benefits package and compensation is based on qualifications and experience. Closing date May 30, 2015 or until filled. For consideration, please email resume to sgrove@jeffersoncountywv.org or mail to P O Box 39, Charles Town, WV 25414.